I Was Just Thinking...

The story is told of Abraham, our great Patriarch, being chosen by God to be the first one to understand that there is, in fact, One God. But, what was so great about him? Why him? The Torah gives no clues. As a matter of fact, the story we read about him in this week's portion has him attending to guests that arrive at his tent. Again, while it's a nice and important gesture, there is still no clue given as to why God picked him. A few verses later we are told that God has a plan for Sodom and Gomorrah. Must God tell Abraham the plan? After-all, God says, Abraham will be the father of a great nation whereby all the other nations will be blessed. And here we finally have a clue. The juxtaposition between the story of welcoming the three strangers and God telling us that Abraham will be the source of national pride and worldly example is the key.

To become a great and respected nation, one must first be the place of welcome and protection. It was true for Abraham and it is true for us as well.

This very ideal, that there could be a place, as Emma Lazarus' poem so aptly captures, where the tired and the huddled masses, yearning to be free can go, is, in part, the ideal that so many brave men and women of our country have served to uphold. This ideal, that America is a place of welcome and hospitality, is one worth defending and promoting. While we might not always be great at it all the time, throughout time, we still believe it to be possible and find value in making sure this and other American ideals are defended and kept secure.

We live in a scary and tempestuous time. More than ever have our ideals been shaken to their core. More than ever are there those who seek to put an end to that which we hold dear. More than ever are we thankful to those who continue to make sure that our freedoms and our way of life are protected. There are not enough thank yous to be given to express our heartfelt gratitude to those who have served our country and who, through their bravery and valor, sought to be the ambassadors of freedom, safety and security we need to be able to be the kind of people who can welcome, embrace and care. Our night in commemorating Veterans Day is one small act of thanks in this regard. I wish it could be more.

Many Americans mistakenly believe that Veterans Day is the day America sets aside to honor American military personnel who died in battle or as a result of wounds sustained from combat. That's not quite true. Memorial Day is the day set aside to honor America's war dead. Veterans Day, on the other hand, honors ALL American veterans, both living and dead. In fact, Veterans Day is largely intended to thank LIVING veterans for dedicated and loyal service to their country. November 11 of each year is the day that we ensure veterans know that we deeply appreciate the sacrifices they have made in their lives to keep our country free.

To commemorate the ending of the "Great War" (World War I), an "unknown soldier" was buried in the highest place of honor in both England and France (in England, Westminster Abbey; in France, the Arc de Triomphe). These ceremonies took place on November 11th, celebrating the ending of World War I hostilities at 11 a.m., November 11, 1918 (the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month). This day became known internationally as "Armistice Day". In 1921, the United States of America followed France and England by laying to rest the remains of a World War I American soldier -- his name "known but to God" -- on a Virginia hillside overlooking the city of Washington DC and the Potomac River. This site became known as the "Tomb of the Unknown Soldier," and today is called the "Tomb of the Unknowns." Located in Arlington National Cemetery, the tomb symbolizes dignity and reverence for the American veteran.

This ideal, that America is a place of welcome and hospitality, is one worth defending and promoting. While we might not always be great at it all the time, throughout time, we still believe it to be possible and find value in making sure this and other American ideals are defended and kept secure.

In America, November 11th officially became known as Armistice Day through an act of Congress in 1926. It wasn't until 12 years later, through a similar act, that Armistice Day became a national holiday. The entire World thought that World War I was the "War to end all wars." Had this been true, the holiday might still be called Armistice Day today. That dream was shattered in 1939 when World War II broke out in Europe. More than 400,000 American service members died during that horrific war. In 1947, Raymond Weeks, of Birmingham, Ala., organized a "Veterans Day" parade on November 11th to honor all of America's veterans for their loyal and dedicated service. Shortly thereafter, Congressman Edward H. Rees (Kansas) introduced legislation to change the name of Armistice Day to Veterans Day in order to honor all veterans who have served the United States in all wars.

In 1954, President Eisenhower signed a bill proclaiming November 11 as Veterans Day, and called upon Americans everywhere to rededicate themselves to the cause of peace. He issued a Presidential Order directing the head of the Veterans Administration (now called the Department of Veterans Affairs), to form a Veterans Day National Committee to organize and oversee the national observance of Veterans Day.

Our observance of Veterans Day includes the singing of the Anthems of each of the five service branches; Coast Guard, Navy, Air Force, Marines and Army. Please join us as we honor our veterans at our Shabbat service Friday, November 11, at 6:30pm. Please join us as we salute all those for their service and dedication to our country.

Jewish Journeys

Rabbi Paley, in his Erev Rosh Hashanah sermon, explained that we can truly be a K'hilah K'doshah, A Holy Congregation by sharing our stories with each other: To get to know one another a little better; To learn about our Jewish Journeys; whether they be from across the sea as Holocaust survivors, or across the highway as "Jews by Choice." The process has started. During this year's Yom Kippur Afternoon Symposium, four distinct Jewish Journey stories were told. In the next few months, those stories will be shared within this temple bulletin to remind you of who we are and where we came from. Early in 2012 we'll begin to record, share and archive excerpts of what was told by any and all who would be willing to reveal their tale.

This month we'll share the journey of Tricia Washington who participated in that symposium, a recent Jew-by-choice and member of Temple Shalom. Here is an excerpt of her story: Four years ago Patricia realized that she needed spirituality in her life. She was not exactly sure what she would find and what would be the right community for her group of people, but when her friend, temple member Faye Metzger, invited her to join her for Rosh Hashanah, she agreed. Tricia was immediately struck by the friendliness and warmth of the members at Temple Shalom. "People were sincerely interested in who I was." She enjoyed the music and the rabbis' sermons and the traditions that Faye introduced her to during visits to her home. After her holy day experience, she knew this was the place for her. She called and spoke with Rabbi Schneider, who, to make sure she really wanted to convert, gave her eight books to read which she devoured. She was shocked to learn that Reform Judaism was so different from the Orthodox Judaism she had seen on "Jewish web-sites." Rabbi Schneider told her that she needed to study "where you're going to be a member because Judaism is all about community. You'll need that support." And she knows how right he was.

Her conversion took place last spring. She joined the Temple Shalom Sisterhood and volunteers in the Traditions gift shop. She attends services regularly and brings her friends. She is currently enrolled in the two year Melton Program and loves it. She even convinced members Faye Metzger and Toba Reifer to enroll in the program with her. "Together," she said, "we are a 'hot mess!' in class."

Temple Shalom is going to Israel and we want you to be on the plane with us!!!

Probably the single most amazing experience of my life (not including the birth of my children and their B'nei Mitzvah) was the moment at sunset, with singing from inside the homes bouncing off the ancient walls, when we emerged from those narrow passageways into the plaza of the Western Wall on Erev Shabbat. There was singing and dancing and a sense of joy that you must experience to understand. Our group had arrived in Jerusalem 24 hours earlier and our leader walked us through the old city, stopping to tell us stories about the ancient walls as we made our way through the narrow passageways to the place that elicits a spiritual connection in a way like no other.

Next June – from the 6th to the 17th – Rabbi Paley, Debbie Niederman and I will be leading the first ever Temple Shalom trip to Israel. Our next meeting for this fabulous opportunity will be Sunday, November 13th, 4:30–6:30pm. At this meeting, we will begin to learn about specific places we will visit and study a bit about the history of the land that we will encounter. On line reservations for this trip are open and active at this time. We are very excited about this trip and I hope that you will come to the meeting – even if you are just thinking about joining us. This is an opportunity to receive details about the itinerary and meet the participants who will be traveling together. This trip is open to ANYONE who would like to join us. So, please feel free to bring your friends and family – even if they are not members of our congregation. There is also an optional 3-day added excursion to Petra and Eilat which will be led by Rabbi Paley and Debbie Niederman.

This is going to be an incredible 10 days together – building community, experiencing our holiest sites, and connecting with the land and people of Israel. I hope you will join us!

HIGH HOLY DAY PROGRAMMING FOR OUR CHILDREN

This past holiday season, we heard from several parents about their desire to have a more formal and age appropriate High Holy Day experience for our children in Kindergarten through Seventh Grade. We would like to be able to provide a meaningful experience for our children, and have the programming ready to go. In order to make that happen, we need a minimum of 50 volunteers willing to give up 1 hour of their holiday. This is our second effort to try and make this happen and we hope that there are congregants out there willing to help make it a reality. Please let Debbie Massarano know, at dmassarano@templeshalomdallas.org or 972-661-1362, if you are willing to volunteer next holiday season. Thank you.

Temple Shalom, in partnership with the Alzheimer's Association, is starting an Alzheimer's and Dementia “Caregiver's Day Out” program.

This will be a 6 month pilot program after which the program will be evaluated and determined if and how we should move forward. On Thursday, November 17th, 10:00am-2:00pm in the Learning Center, the Alzheimer's Association will provide training of our volunteers.

Temple Shalom will provide a safe, loving, nurturing environment for participants while giving their caregivers a much needed break from the continuous care they provide. This is an opportunity for volunteers to do a mitzvah by giving a joyful, enriching experience to someone suffering from memory loss. Our program begins December 8th and will be offered the 2nd and 4th Thursdays each month from 10:00am to 2:00pm. Lunch will be provided.

The caregivers will drop their loved one off at Temple Shalom where they will be met by a “special friend” volunteer. Each participant will be matched with an appropriate volunteer and, together with the group, will spend a stimulating, creative few hours with activities such as music, playing games, arts and crafts, sharing of talents or special interest the volunteers may have.

The Mission Continues...Texas style!

Wow, what a month. As we close October, there are many memorable events: High Holidays in our expanded and renovated building; Texas Rangers battling the St.Louis Cardinals in a hard fought World Series (as of this writing, the series is tied 2-2); the Dallas Cowboys finding a high powered running back (DeMarco Murray); and it looks like Dennis E's curse of the PPII is still in place with 3 consecutive losses in Fantasy Football.

I would like to thank: All the hard working participants who came out to build our sukkah and look forward to as many as possible coming out and taking it down (date is forthcoming); the Ushers for assisting all of our congregants to experience a smooth transition from the outside into our safe and meaningful services; our Toast and Roast committee, led by Mr. Scott Butnick, in moving forward, which will culminate in a wonderful evening honoring our Rabbi Emeritus Kenneth Roseman; and Mr. Rick Protas for accepting the invitation to join the Brotherhood Board. He has been very involved and will make a great addition to our group.

B'shalom,
Michael Kaplan
President - Brotherhood

We will hear Tales from the FBI from former Special Agent Parks Stearns. What does a Special Agent do? How about dealing with fugitives, espionage, bank robberies, advising Congress, fraud, terrorism, counter-terrorism and Russian organized crime. Parks started his career working on the Patty Hearst kidnapping and bank robbery case. Our challenge will be seeing how much excitement we can fit into an hour.

Everyone is welcome.

Then volunteer to usher at Shabbat Services by contacting Les Taub, ltaub972@aol.com or 972-233-2181.

Does donating to Temple Shalom without it costing you anything sound "too good to be true"? That's exactly what the service provided by GiveSmart does. It's free to you and to Temple Shalom. All you do is register and then conduct your normal eCommerce shopping by shopping through this site: <http://igivesmart.com/templeshalom>.

Each purchase you make returns a percentage of the sale to Temple Shalom.

It's easy, smart, quick, safe, and yet doesn't cost you a single penny extra. Most importantly, it's a huge help to Temple Shalom. Invite your friends and family to shop!

Remember the Temple in Your Will

Temple Shalom is committed to preserving the future of our congregation for generations to come. Bequests of all sizes are important resources for the Temple, and we encourage you to be a link to the future by remembering the Temple in your will. Your lasting tribute is your commitment to the survival of our religion, our Temple, and our people.

A bequest can easily be established by adding a simple codicil to your will. Additionally, many other options exist to leave a legacy for Temple Shalom. A brochure with more information is available in our main foyer, or by contacting the administrative offices. For more information, please contact our Executive Director Steve Lewis at 972-661-1810 ext.202.

Your planned gift will serve the future of our congregation and community. Thank you for helping assure the strength and health of Temple Shalom for generations to come.

As a caring community, we would like to reach out to our members.

When there is an illness, hospitalization, death, birth, etc. please contact Joy in Rabbi Paley's office at 972-661-1810 x201 or jaddison@templeshalomdallas.org.

Rabbi Paley, Cantor Croll and volunteers are here to help during times of need and celebration.
