I Was Just Thinking...

It has been five years. Five long and difficult years. Five years of fighting. Five years of civilian casualties. Five years of humanitarian crisis. When will it end? I am not talking about the war in Iraq; that is for another time. No, I am talking about the other five year conflict that is still raging out of control in Darfur, Sudan.

It has been five years since the Sudanese Liberation Army/Movement (SLA/M) and the Justice and Equality Movement (JEM) joined forces against the government in an attempt to force the government to deal with issues related to the poor economy, oppression, drought, and otherwise miserable conditions the government was not addressing. The government's response has been overwhelmingly brutal. The government sought to arm local militias and tribes to combat the insurgency. These groups, called Janjaweed, have had carte blanche to wipe out every possible hint of rebellion. In their wake, the Janjaweed have destroyed village after village, killing, torturing and displacing tens of thousands of people. As of this printing, there have been nearly 400,000 people who have been killed, with refugees and displaced persons in the millions. What has been our response?

Many of us have used our outrage and our sense of Jewish history to get involved in trying to do something. Many of us have written articles, joined rallies, lobbied our local and national representatives, donated money or joined coalitions such as www.SaveDarfur.org. In a dramatic exclamation point on history, in 2004, the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's Committee on Conscience (www.ushmm.org/conscience) designated the crisis in Darfur as Genocide Emergency – the first such time that designation had been used. In this day and age, the world is a witness.

Currently, according to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum, there are four areas in our world that are under a genocide watch or emergency: Darfur, Sudan; South Sudan in the Nuba mountains; Chechniya; and Rwanda. In these four regions alone, the death toll since 1988 has been over 7.4 million people! Genocide is still happening in 2008!! In this day and age, the world is a witness.

Fast forward to May, 2008. On May 2, 2008, the Jewish world will commemorate Yom haShoah, the ceremony commemorating the Holocaust and victims of genocide during WWII. (The Dallas commemoration ceremony this year will be held Sunday, May 4th at 2:00pm at Tiferet Israel.) We continue to tell our story because we have much still to do in teaching our children, ourselves and the world the lessons we so painfully learned almost 70 years ago; lessons of the effects of intolerance; bigotry, racism, anti-Semitism, fascism, cruelty and war. We continue to tell our story because there are still survivors who can share first hand what happened to them personally and how they feel remembering how a world watched. We continue to tell our story because telling our story has an impact on the world; we can still be the bearers of God's light in the darkest corners of the world, because the lessons we learned of our story are really a story of the human race

“We continue to tell our story because there are still survivors who can share first hand what happened to them personally and how they feel remembering how a world watched. We continue to tell our story because telling our story has an impact on the world; we can still be the bearers of God's light in the darkest corners of the world, because the lessons we learned of our story are really a story of the human race and if we fail to teach ourselves, then we have ultimately failed to teach the world. In responding to these crises of genocide we can put into practice the lessons we learned from the Holocaust because in this day and age, the world is a witness.”

and if we fail to teach ourselves, then we have ultimately failed to teach the world. In responding to these crises of genocide we can put into practice the lessons we learned from the Holocaust because in this day and age, the world is a witness. Won't you join with me as we commemorate Yom haShoah in a community ceremony on May 4th. And, if you haven't done so already, your participation in the Brotherhood yellow candle program commemorating the Holocaust, is a beautiful and important way for our Temple to do something meaningful in the memory of the six million. We can then join together our voices and our resources to do whatever we can to not just be a witness but a partner in bringing the gifts to those in need – gifts of wholeness, completeness and, most of all, Shalom - peace.

“18 Things You Can Do to Honor the Occasion of Israel’s 60th Anniversary”

May is the month of Israel’s 60th birthday, and we are celebrating in our congregations, in our communities, on college campuses and in our summer camps. But, perhaps you are wondering, “What can I do to honor the occasion of Israel’s 60th anniversary of independence?” I’m glad you asked. Here are 18 things that can be done to honor Israel.

1. Visit and experience Israel. Make it a priority. See and explore Israel’s natural beauty, historic landmarks, and important holy sites. I know this experience will affect you profoundly and remain with you forever.
2. Send your children. If they are in high school or will be soon, I recommend NFTY in Israel (<http://www.nftyisrael.org/>), a unique and challenging four week summer experience created especially for teens who seek a meaningful and exciting journey to Israel filled with amazing memories and friendships which will last a lifetime.
3. Send your young adult children on Taglit-Birthright Israel. Taglit-Birthright Israel is an expense-paid travel program for Jewish young adults ages 18-26. For ten days, they tour the country with their counterparts from all over the world, strengthening their sense of Jewish identity and discovering firsthand the significance of Israel. (<http://keshercollege.org/birthright/>)
4. Support Progressive Judaism in Israel. The Israel Movement for Progressive Judaism (IMPJ) is Israel’s liberal Jewish religious movement, and a constituent member of the World Union of Progressive Judaism. For more information, visit: <http://www.reform.org.il/Eng/>
5. Buy Israeli products. From the comfort of your own home, you can browse and click to buy Israeli jewelry or art, Israeli books, clothing, housewares, beauty products, music, and more. Go to: <http://www.shopinisrael.com/> or <http://www.israeliproducs.com/> or <http://www.usaisrael.org/>. You can also ask your local grocer to order Israeli products!
6. Enjoy Israeli culture. Did you know Israel was nominated for a Best Foreign Film at the Oscars a couple months ago? This was the first time in almost 25 years! Discover “Beaufort,” and other fabulous Israeli films at Netflix. Take a folk dance class at the JCC. Hire a klezmer band for your next party.
7. Donate. Donate to humanitarian and life-saving, non-profit organizations that are Israeli or support Israel like American Friends of Magen David Adom, Jewish National Fund, Israel Bonds, Hadassah, Yad Sarah, and Friends of the IDF.
8. Advocate. The next time you hear or read something that puts down Israel, don’t wonder to yourself, “What is anyone going to do about it?” No Jewish organization or Israeli consulate can fight the propaganda war on every front. You be the “anyone” and pick up your pen or keyboard and start writing. Write a piece for your local newspaper, set up information tables at your high school or college, or simply talk to people. Be a roving ambassador for Israel by explaining the true facts to everyone you meet. The worst thing that one can do is to remain quiet in times like this. Learn how to recognize anti-Israel bias in media reporting at the PRIMER website (<http://www.tampabayprimer.org/>) and click on “Recognizing anti-Israel bias in the left menu tab). Join AIPAC (<http://www.aipac.org/>) and get on the E-mailing lists of media watch-dog groups such as CAMERA (<http://www.camera.org/>) and HONEST REPORTING (<http://www.honestreporting.com/>).
9. Read. Read English editions of The Jerusalem Post (<http://www.jpost.com/>), Ha’aretz News (<http://www.haaretz.com/>), YNet Breaking News (<http://www.ynetnews.com/>). Read What Israel Means to Me written by 80 Prominent Writers, Performers, Scholars, Politicians, and Journalists and edited by Alan Dershowitz. I also recommend: A Concise History of the Arab-Israeli Conflict by Ian Bickerton and Carla L. Klausner or Myths and Facts by Mitchell G. Bard.
10. Be informed. Learn about what is really happening in Israel. Visit the Israeli government’s site at <http://www.mfa.gov.il/> MFA, check out: ADL: <http://www.adl.org/> or Conference of Presidents of Major Jewish Organizations (<http://www.conferenceofpresidents.org/>) or the Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs: <http://www.jcpa.org/>.
11. Inform. Talk to your friends, family and work associates. Tell them that a threat to Israel is a threat to us all and encourage them to contribute to and support organizations that support Israel.
12. Write, call, visit and e-mail elected officials to urge support and thank them for their past support. Whether you are a Republican, Democrat, or Independent, E-mail President Bush at president@whitehouse.gov. Thank him for his unwavering and unconditional support of Israel. In the subject line write “Thank you for your support of Israel.”
13. Nourish your own Zionism. Join ARZA, the Association of Reform Zionists of America (<http://www.arza.org/>). Arza’s mission is to be the Zionist arm and voice of the Reform Movement in the United States. Arza endeavors to make Israel fundamental to the sacred lives and Jewish identity of Reform Jews. As a Zionist organization, ARZA champions activities that further enhance Israel as a pluralistic, just and democratic Jewish state.
14. Remember. Educate yourself and your family about the Holocaust and anti-Semitism. Go to the Yad Vashem Holocaust Museum www.yad-vashem.org.il/ and Remember.org www.remember.org.
15. Plant a tree. As far as it may be from your mind at the moment, thousands of acres of Jewish National Fund forests burned as a result of the hundreds of missiles that have been fired into Israel. Replanting those areas will cost money. Go to: <http://www.jnf.org/>.
16. Buy a Pizza or Burger. You can literally send a pizza or burger to Israeli soldiers. By doing this, you can provide them a much needed moral boost by demonstrating support from around the world. Go to: <http://pizzaidf.org/> and <http://burgeridf.org/>.
17. Connect with Israeli families. At www.walkforisrael.com you can get a list of families to whom you can send condolence cards and find out about sending flowers to families of soldiers and terror victims.
18. Pray. Pray for peace in the land of Israel and the world. Pray for Israel’s leaders who need wisdom. Pray that they continue to do what is best for Israel.

LIFE LONG LEARNING

This year we invited you to discover a world of Jewish experience for every member of your family and connect with old and new friends in the process. Through the myriad of classes and activities, culminating in our very successful Synaplex Shabbat events, we stepped into the journey of our Jewish tradition.

Our goal of teaching God, Torah, and Israel, and providing a sense of direction and a sense of connection is ongoing, of course. All that we achieved this past year, we aim to even surpass in the coming months.

And, talking about new heights -- I am thrilled to share with you exciting news about Temple Shalom Religious School. Both our Jewish studies curriculum as well as our Hebrew program are about to take on a tremendous change. We have made the decision to acquire a most innovative curriculum that has been designed, developed, and implemented within our Union for Reform Judaism.

Our staff is going to receive intensive training during the summer as well as throughout the year. Our teachers are looking forward to implementing a curriculum that has been embraced and successfully adopted by many of our Reform congregations. To learn more about the Chai curriculum and the Mitkadem curriculum you can go to <http://urj.org/chai/>.

So, for all of you parents who have shared your feedback with us about the school, we want you to know that we listened and we acted. You are our partners in this Life Long Learning adventure, and we are grateful for your participation and your support, and appreciate the efforts of our many volunteers in making all of our events not only possible, but very rewarding for all who attended.

Now be watching for our Life Long Learning pursuits on the horizon. The drawing board is already overflowing with sketches designed to enrich our lives and inspire our souls.

L'Chaim! To life!

PRESCHOOL

Preschool Receives Helen E. Risch Scholarship

For the second year in a row, Temple Shalom Preschool has been chosen as a recipient of the Helen E. Risch Scholarship Fund for the 2008-2009 school year. This scholarship was established last year by Helen E. Risch in partnership with the Dallas Jewish Community Foundation. Helen E. Risch understands the need to increase Jewish preschool enrollment and this award acknowledges the importance of promoting this fund with hopes of stimulating community interest in increasing financial support of Jewish preschool education in Dallas. If you are interested in becoming a part of this group to help provide support of Jewish preschool education, feel free to contact David Agronin, Executive Director of the Dallas Jewish Community Foundation. In his letter informing us of the award, David Agronin said, "May the ever-reaching impact of creating a love of Judaism in children continue to serve as reward to you, your students and their families."

We in the preschool wholeheartedly agree and are so pleased to be able to provide this award to one of our families.

Shalom Y.A.L.L. is the Dallas Address for Young Adults

Temple Shalom Y.A.L.L. (Young Adult Lay Leaders) continues to grow in popularity among the young Jews of Dallas. Many successful events have been held during recent months, and even more successful events are planned.

Shalom Y.A.L.L. continues to hold its hugely successful monthly “Davening and Dining” event on the last Friday night of every month. A group of young adults meet at Temple Shalom at 6:00 pm for wine and cheese, worship, and general schmoozing. Then, the group of young people head to a trendy restaurant for dinner and drinks. In February they went to Café Madrid in Uptown; in March they went to Mattito’s on Cedar Springs, and in May they will head to Chaucer’s in Addison.

On Saturday night, March 22, Shalom Y.A.L.L. held its first annual “Purim Poker Party” under the tagline “Cast Your Lots, Shalom Y.A.L.L.” The event was a formal “Casino Night” and was held in a ballroom at the upscale Four Seasons Hotel and Resort in Las Colinas. Guests from all over the DFW area showed up dressed to impress in tuxedos and evening gowns. They enjoyed cocktails, and played craps, poker, and blackjack throughout the night. The chips they won were traded in for raffle tickets for prizes that included incredible Dallas Mavericks tickets, Frisco Rough Riders tickets, a Casino Party of their own, an autographed baseball, and a Frisco Rough Riders jersey. The Casino Party went late into the night as some of the guests rented connecting rooms in the Four Seasons Hotel and held an “after party.” A lot of buzz was created in the community due to the success of this event!

On April 12th, Shalom Y.A.L.L. went to the ballpark to see the Frisco Roughriders, the Double-A affiliate of the Texas Rangers. The group had a block of seats reserved behind home plate and saw their name on the scoreboard!

On April 27th, Shalom Y.A.L.L. met up at BJ’s Restaurant for a chametz party, a place to enjoy bread for the first time after Passover! BJ’s is a popular brewery and pizza place on Beltline Road in Addison.

If you know someone who is between the ages of 22 and 39, and they are not receiving the “Chai-Lites,” the electronic newsletter about these and upcoming events with Shalom Y.A.L.L., please email youngadults@templeshalomdallas.org. Shalom Y.A.L.L. is led by Rabbi Jeremy Schneider, Co-Chairs Anna Miller and Rich Reister, and Council Members Andrea Sennet and Andy Goodman.

President's Message

Our nominating committee has completed the process of formulating our slate of officers for the 2008/2009 Temple Shalom Brotherhood Board of Directors. Please see the slate of officers listed on this page. I am very excited and believe that we have a renewed energy for the future of our Temple Shalom Brotherhood. I want to sincerely thank the Brotherhood nominating committee for their hard work and diligence in choosing the slate of officers for the 2008/2009 year of Temple Shalom Brotherhood.

In accordance with our Temple Shalom Brotherhood by-laws, the slate of nominees for the officers and board of directors shall be sent via e-mail, to all registered members of our Brotherhood, at least 21 days prior to the election of the proposed slate. The date of the election shall be held on May 21, 2008 at 7:00pm at the Temple. All members in good standing are invited to this annual meeting to cast their vote.

My term as President of your Temple Shalom Brotherhood is rapidly drawing to a close. I want to thank everyone in our Temple Shalom family for their support and help during my tenure as President. The past two years that I have been your Brotherhood president have been filled with great joy and also great personal sadness. I am truly grateful and thankful to the wonderful brothers that have supported me and helped me to be successful in leading our organization. These devoted and caring men have helped me deal with both the joys and heartaches over the past two years and they truly represent what it means to be a Temple Shalom Brotherhood "BROTHER."

Please feel free to contact me, or any member of our board, if you have any questions, suggestions for programming or anything else that concerns you.

Sincerely,
Marty Mintz
Temple Shalom Brotherhood President

What Does A Woman Want?

I am reading an interesting book, IT'S MOSTLY HIS FAULT, by Robert Mark Alter and this story comes from there.

A man is walking along a California beach and stumbles across an old lamp. He picks it up and rubs it and out pops a genie. The genie says, "Ok, Ok, you released me from the lamp. This is the 9th time in two centuries and I'm getting a little sick of everybody's wishes, so you can forget about having three of them. You only get one."

The man says, "I've always wanted to go to Hawaii, but I'm afraid to fly and I get very seasick. How about building me my own bridge to Hawaii so I can drive over there whenever I want?"

The genie laughs and says, "Come on now. How can I possibly do that? Think of how big it would have to be and the problems involved. Like how would the supports ever reach the bottom of the Pacific? How high would it have to be to let all the ships out there pass under it? Do you know how much concrete it would take? And steel? This time think carefully of your one wish."

The man says, "Ok" and sits down for a long time to come up with a better wish. Finally, he says, "I've got it! I've been married and divorced 3 times. My wives always said that I didn't care about them and that I'm insensitive and ignorant. So I wish that I could understand women, know how they feel inside and what they're thinking, know why they're crying, know why they're angry at me, know what they really want, know how to make them truly happy---"

The genie interrupts and says, "You want that bridge two lanes or four?!"

I can see you nodding your heads, while also hearing your laughter. We women (of all ages) make up a wonderful Sisterhood, don't we? Here's to us!

Remember the Temple in Your Will

Temple Shalom is committed to preserving the future of our congregation for generations to come. Bequests of all sizes are important resources for the Temple, and we encourage you to be a link to the future by remembering the Temple in your will. Your lasting tribute is your commitment to the survival of our religion, our Temple, and our people.

A bequest can easily be established by adding a simple codicil to your will. Additionally, many other options exist to leave a legacy for Temple Shalom. A brochure with more information is available in our main foyer, or by contacting the administrative offices. For more information, please contact our Executive Director Steve Lewis at 972-661-1810 ext. 202. Your planned gift will serve the future of our congregation and community. Thank you for helping assure the strength and health of Temple Shalom for generations to come.

PUT MORE FUN
IN YOUR LIFE - JOIN A HAVURAH!

A Havurah is a small fellowship group of people (of similar age and/or interests) who get together regularly for Jewish study, holidays, speakers, discussions, outings, and whatever other activities that particular group desires. Havurah means friendship; hopefully by meeting regularly, each group will bond and stay together for many years.

We are currently re-energizing the Havurah program at Temple Shalom: Haverot for young couples, young families, interfaith couples, empty nesters, Parents Without Partners, singles for 40s and 50s, and singles 60+, just to name a few. Watch for details of meetings in Plano, Dallas and other areas.

We welcome your ideas too; so pick up the phone or send an e-mail, but get the ball rolling! Enhance your life with new friends and new interests. JOIN A HAVURAH!

For further information, please contact Lonna Rae and Jerry Silverman, Co-Chairs of Haverot at 214-636-4799 or lrstx@tx.rr.com.

If interested in either singles group, please contact Judy Troyan Parker at 972-386-5969 or heyjud38@aol.com.
