I Was Just Thinking...

Corn flakes. You know them...I know them. But did you know that Kellogg's brand corn flakes were invented in 1894 by accident, by John Harvey Kellogg and his brother Will? The first commercially available box of Kellogg's corn flakes was sold in 1906 and in 1909, Kellogg's added a prize in their cereal; The Funny Jungleland

Moving Pictures Booklet available with the purchase of 2 packages. The offer was available for twenty-three years! There have been many wonderful marketing campaigns for corn flakes, but my favorite one I saw many years ago. It was a picture of the box, with the tag line, "Kellogg's Corn flakes: Try them again for the first time!" It was and is a fantastic reminder to try again, the things that we love, as if it were the first time, and for some to try things for the first time, hoping you'll love it every time.

Try it again for the first time. A very Jewish sounding dictum indeed. Attempt to see the sameness of the world through the same eyes, yet yielding a different vision. When others see desperation and despair, the prophets of our tradition saw hope and possibility. Where some see isolation and disconnection, Jewish tradition sees a minyan, a group, a community, a people. More than ever do we need new eyes with which to see the world, and an energized effort to help others see that and more. More than ever, do I believe the synagogue is the vehicle through which we can see the world, our community, our families and our selves; those elements we encounter every day, those scenes we have seen every day, the sameness we embrace every day, anew, different, more colorful, vibrant and exciting. The synagogue is the place to try on our lives again, for the first time. Temple Shalom is such a place.

Over the years I have shared with many of you my journey to Temple Shalom and the prevailing metaphor I use to highlight the importance of the story; that a blustery, blizzard-filled, dark evening should yield its havoc to a Temple called Shalom. That our Temple is filled with people aspiring to bring a sense of wholeness and completeness to others, is simply incredible. Just when I needed it most, shalom came into my life, and it has been the best thing ever. So I wonder, "...who else needs a bit of Shalom? Who else needs a lot of Shalom? Who would benefit, as I did, from our wonderful Temple making its way into their lives?" The answer, I assure myself, is a lot of people do. In a world and time so filled with fright and uncertainty, a world as tempestuous as it is complex, our world needs shalom badly. I believe, in our corner of the universe, our world needs Temple Shalom badly.

To that end, I hope that you will join with me in sharing the good news of Temple Shalom with everyone with whom you come into contact, especially those who are not yet connected to a Temple. Share your story of how Temple Shalom matters to you; invite a friend to join you for worship, study, or one of the myriad of programs and activities Temple Shalom offers. Remind your friends and acquaintances of the importance of being a part of something bigger than ourselves, of being a part of a community that seeks to bring shalom to the world and how awesome and powerful and meaningful that can be.

"...who else needs a bit of Shalom? Who else needs a lot of Shalom? Who would benefit, as I did, from our wonderful Temple making its way into their lives?" The answer, I assure myself, is a lot of people do. In a world and time so filled with fright and uncertainty, a world as tempestuous as it is complex, our world needs shalom badly. I believe, in our corner of the universe, our world needs Temple Shalom badly.

If you are like me, you want every to feel as good about seeing the world and the things around us as I do. You'll want everyone to be able to see things that we have seen before with new eyes and with new perspectives. If you are like me than you'll want everyone to try Temple Shalom, whether it is for the very first time, or not, hoping to make it like the first time. Won't you join with me to shout this message loudly and confidently? For when we do, we will bring shalom to the world, in a deep, meaningful and profound way, that will touch people's lives, change the way we see the community, and alter the course of the world toward its ultimate redemptive completion. Wow! That's is incredible and made possible all because of you.

On the box of Kellogg's corn Flakes, right under the name is the line, "the Original and the Best." While copyright infringements prohibit the use of that line here, and while we may not be the original Temple Shalom, I happen to think we are the best at offering shalom and look forward to joining with you, to try it again, for the first time, making it happen.

IT'S TIME TO JOIN THE ADULT CHOIR!

I hope your summer has been filled with sun and relaxation. It may seem too early to think about the holidays, but we are at that time again. The rabbis and I have been busy preparing for our services for the High Holy Days and we cannot wait to celebrate the new year with you.

We are always looking to recruit new members to the Adult Choir.

Dr. Jonathan Palant, our choir director, and I hope that those of you who have ever thought about joining the choir will consider doing so this year. Those who are in the Adult Choir will tell you that this is an exciting time to be singing with us.

Singing in the choir is a way to serve your community and it also serves the soul. The music for the holidays is glorious, majestic, and transcendent. You will not only learn new music, you will learn more about Judaism, Hebrew, and our liturgy. You don't have to be able to read music or speak Hebrew in order to join. We have many musical congregants and we welcome them at whatever level they are at to come try out the choir.

We begin rehearsals for the High Holy Days on Tuesday, August 8th. Come join us!

In Peace and Song,
Cantor Devorah Avery

Lifelong Learning Council

As many of you know, I became a mother this summer to a beautiful, sweet baby boy named Jacob (see pic below). He has brought so much joy, laughter (and many sleepless nights) to both Asher and myself, and we feel incredibly lucky to have him in our lives. With the arrival of our baby boy came a whole slew of transitions and new beginnings. Asher and I went from being just a couple to being parents, we turned our guest room into a nursery, and upgraded our cars to better fit a car seat and stroller. In thinking about all the transitions and beginnings Asher and I have experienced, I can't help but think how much more Jacob has gone through and will go through in the coming months and years. He entered this world on May 18th as a little 6 ½ pound baby and has his whole life in front of him. He has so much to experience and so much to accomplish and I love thinking about everything yet to come. Like all of you with your children, Asher and I have so many hopes and dreams for our little boy. It is a new beginning and it's full of excitement for all involved.

While you may not have experienced the birth of a new child or grandchild this summer, we are all about to experience a new beginning together as a Jewish community as Rosh Hashanah approaches. As the High Holy Days get closer and our Jewish year comes to a close, we are presented with an opportunity to start anew, to have a brand new beginning. While it may not be the beginning of a whole new life like that of a newborn baby, it is the beginning of a whole new year full of opportunity and change. It is a time to set goals, to act on our dreams and to start fresh. How lucky are we that we get this opportunity every year to start over?

Now, while many of us set new year's resolutions, whether at the High Holy Days or on January 1st, how many of us actually see our resolutions through? How many of us actually set a goal, plan it out, stick to it and achieve it? I bet many of us, myself included, have fallen short when it comes to a new year's resolution. But why is that? Why do we fail to reach our goals when we have such good intentions?

Perhaps it is because our goals are unrealistic? Perhaps it is because we don't plan them out well? Or, perhaps it is because they are not measurable? It is for these reasons that I recommend following the S.M.A.R.T. method of setting goals. This means taking the following into consideration when setting a new goal: (S) making sure the goal is Specific, (M) ensuring that it is Measurable, (A & R) checking that it is Achievable and Realistic and, finally, (T) that it is Time Based. With these criteria, we are more likely to achieve our goals and see them through to completion.

As you and your families are preparing for another school year, I encourage you to sit down together and plan some individual and family goals for the year. Help one another to set S.M.A.R.T. goals and track them throughout the year.

Rosh Hashanah is a new beginning and I pray it is a meaningful one for you and your loved ones.

Adult Education Programs

This year's Wednesday evening programs will focus on four areas:

- Traditional text-based programs, with emphasis on works other than Torah
- Cultural programs and the arts, including Movie Nights
- Spiritualism and Kabbalah
- Comparative religion

Our first program is a showing of Gentleman's Agreement on Wednesday, September 27th at 7:00pm in the Boardroom. This 1947 Gregory Peck classic movie tackled anti-Semitism, and should provoke conversation during the High Holy Days.

Our first Wednesday evening text-based program will be October 25th, 7:00-8:30pm in the Boardroom. Prophetic Works: Jeremiah, Daniel, Isaiah will be taught by a retired, former nun, Dorothy Jonaitis. Her masters and doctorate work focused on "Old Testament." Her book Unmasking Apocalyptic Texts is used in seminaries as a guide for clergy to teach others.

Program ideas are always welcome, but vetted presenters are cherished. Adult Ed has a spring program idea called "Chagall for All" that needs a presenter with a Masters Degree in Art History. We need someone to present on all the Chagall works adorning our halls, with a discussion level suitable for teens to seniors. If you have a connection that can help, please call 214-533-8820 or email Adult Ed Chair James Waldorf at adulded@templeshalomdallas.org.

There are two significant programs to "save the dates" for on your personal calendars.

Hanukkah Week - December 12-16: Our Composer-in-Residence will be Dina Pruzhansky. From Azerbaijan and trained in Israel, she is a pianist and composer of classical works for opera and liturgy. Congregants are welcome to watch choir rehearsals on Tuesday and Wednesday or, for even more enjoyment, join the choir! For Friday services, youth and adult choirs will perform works from Dina's Sacred Service. On Saturday, Dina will present at Torah Study in the morning, and join Cantor Avery for a concert Saturday evening.

Sunday afternoon, January 28, 2018: Nava Tehila Concert

Enjoy this contemporary musical group from Israel that is touring the United States.

We Want to Hear From You!

Based upon feedback from a recent survey of Temple members with an interest in adult education, and from individual meetings with stakeholders, the Temple Shalom Adult Education program will focus on fewer programs with higher impact. You can give your opinions at Adult Education Temple Shalom Survey

Temple Shalom Rabbi Emeritus Uploads Lecture Series

Temple Shalom's rabbi emeritus, Kenneth D. Roseman, has just uploaded the first ten lectures in his series entitled THE HISTORY OF THE JEWS IN AMERICA. The video lectures begin with the settlement of Jews in Spain during Roman times, discuss settlement of Jews in South and North America and now continue through the 1890s. As they are completed, additional lectures will be posted in the next two months until this story is brought up to the present-day.

The series can be accessed by anyone through YOUTUBE by searching for the general title, WE SAW THE LIFTED LAMP, and then selecting the specific topic one wishes to listen to. Each lecture lasts about 20-25 minutes and is illustrated with pictures of historical personalities, maps and other visuals. There is no charge for the series, which is provided as a gift from Rabbi Roseman to anyone interested.

Honoring Rabbi Andrew Paley's 13th Year with Temple Shalom

Mishkan Hanefesh (Tabernacle of the Soul)

August 2017 will mark the 13th Anniversary of Rabbi Andrew Paley joining Temple Shalom as our Senior Rabbi – his 'Bar Mitzvah' year.

To celebrate this milestone, the Congregation will honor Rabbi Paley with the dedication of the new CCAR High Holy Day Siddurim (prayer books). Called Mishkan HaNefesh, this new two-volume machzor will be the standard for the North American Reform Movement. As one of the leading Congregations in the Movement, Temple Shalom will introduce these books at this year's High Holy Days services.

We are honoring Rabbi Paley by acquiring 1,000 sets, as shown above, of these books. Each set is $36 and we are inviting everyone to participate. It is our wish that each family consider dedicating at least one set. Many families will wish to dedicate more than one set in order for us to meet our goal. Please join us by performing this mitzvah in honor of our Senior Rabbi.

It's a great way to connect to our Temple community and the Jewish community at large. Each Havurah determines what it wants to do and plans activities according to its members' interests. It's time for the 2nd Annual Apartment Makeover and, this year, Temple Shalom's Tikkun Olam Council has partnered with Congregation Beth Torah's Social Action Committee.

We will gather items to furnish two homes.

The SignUpGenius is live:

SUNDAY, AUGUST 13th is the Apartment Makeover Day when we will take our donations to the new apartment and get to meet the refugee family!

Refugees are men, women and children fleeing war, persecution and political upheaval who have crossed borders to seek safety in another country. IRC president and CEO David Miliband said: "A robust resettlement program ... furthers US foreign policy and national security goals, brings positive economic contributions to U.S. communities, keeps families together, and most importantly saves lives."

Shomrei Adamah (Guardians of the Earth)

Recently, members of the Temple Shalom Shomrei Adamah (Guardians of the Earth) committee visited the offices of Texas' U.S. Senators Cruz and Cornyn. We delivered more than 100 Faith Climate Action postcards signed by members of our congregation in support of Dallas Interfaith Power & Light's earth month climate awareness campaign. Our committee was received warmly, and we were encouraged by how much common ground we discovered with the staffers who met with us. There is still a tremendous amount of work to be done at federal, state and local levels, but we sensed a growing acceptance of the idea that we are all in it together for protecting our planet. We look forward to sharing more updates with the congregation as these discussions evolve. We welcome ideas and input from Temple Shalom members. If you have questions about Shomrei Adamah or would like to get involved, please contact earth@templeshalomdallas.org.

Dallas Area Interfaith (DAI)

DAI has been active in a number of areas. DAI voter registration efforts in the Los Altos and Bachman Lake Areas resulted in twice the number of voters in the City Council District 6 election as in the previous election. On July 9th, DAI sponsored an Accountability Session with Law Enforcement at Southern Hills Church of Christ to commemorate the anniversary of the police shootings in downtown Dallas. Over 300 people attended, along with many law enforcement officials. This furthers DAI's ongoing work to improve police-community relations by supporting responsible community-based policing. The event both celebrated improvements in the last year, including the video developed by police to teach community residents on how to react to a police stop, and the cleaning of drug-infested corners in the Cedar Crest area. Deputy Chief Gary Tittle responded to questions and personal stories from DAI Leaders. Reverend Jonathan Morrison from Cedar Crest Church of Christ has been selected on the panel to interview and recommend the choice of candidates to the City Manager. On July 20th, DAI held a Leaders Meeting at Our Lady of Lourdes on immigration and Senate Bill 4. DAI has developed an Op-Ed statement on proposed changes in the Affordable Care Act. DAI and the SkillQuest program are prominently mentioned in the Dallas Morning News series on poverty in Dallas that is currently running.

Upcoming DAI Event:
 Thursday, August 3rd at 7:00pm:
 Policing Leaders Meeting (all welcome)

BROTHERHOOD

For most of you it's summer time. But, for the Brotherhood, the year has just begun and our membership drive is underway. I find myself enjoying the multiple events that Brotherhood sponsors. The connection you make with your fellow Brotherhood is an experience I would like to share with all male members of the Temple community. I've been a member of Brotherhood for 13 years, and active in the Brotherhood for 10 years. As I reflect back, it's amazing how much joy the last 10 years as a Brotherhood member has brought me.

You will see on these pages a few of our upcoming activities. I'd like you to consider, as a male member of the Temple, joining us on one or more of these activities and experiencing Brotherhood camaraderie.

Assist us with the 2nd Annual Israel Today Symposium on Sunday, August 6th - Brotherhood members will help set up, take down and volunteer during this event, as well as attend the sessions. (see the flyer in this issue)

Join Brotherhood and stick your toe in the water! Try a few events. It may be the best decision you've made in a long time.

For more details on all of these activities, please go to the Temple website at www.templeshalomdallas.org and look at the calendar or the Brotherhood section.

I look forward to seeing you soon!

Services Online

Video streaming, webcasting, internet broadcasting, call it what you will, we are doing it! Regular Friday evening Shabbat services can be viewed on the internet for times when you cannot attend in person. B'nei Mitzvah services and weddings can also be scheduled for webcasting (for a fee). All live webcasts are also recorded and can be viewed "on-demand" at other times.

To view a Shabbat service live or on-demand, go to Temple Shalom's website at www.templeshalomdallas.org and then point to Worship or Multi-Media. Click on "Services online" and follow the directions. B'nei Mitzvah and weddings are password protected. To view one of these events live, viewers must obtain a password from the sponsoring family. The sponsoring family will also have a link for viewing the archive of a special event.

Temple Shalom gets free money from Amazon!

The next time you log on to Amazon, instead of using the regular Amazon page, go to <https://smile.amazon.com/>. Then simply sign in with your normal Amazon credentials. The first time you sign in, you will be asked to select a beneficiary. Enter "Temple Shalom Dallas" and you will have the option of supporting either Temple Shalom or Temple Shalom Endowment Fund.

Make a selection and you're done! Each time you sign in to <https://smile.amazon.com/> and make a purchase, Temple Shalom will be the beneficiary.

Thanks for doing it!

Celebrating a SIMCHA?

Give the gift of Israel! Consider the purchase of an eMitzvah bond for as little as $36. The recipient will receive the principal plus interest at the end of the five year term.

You can now invest in an Israel bond online for any occasion, at any time.

Simply go to www.israelbonds.com, create an account and purchase a bond.

Name Tags

at Shabbat Services

"Where Everybody Knows Your Name"

Visitors, members and their guests are asked to wear a paper name tag at Shabbat services. We feel that we should all get to know each other and warmly greet our guests. Nothing does this better than seeing a person's name and addressing them with it.

We have paper name tags available in the foyer, and for members who wish to have permanent magnetic name tags, you may order one at the sign-in table for a nominal charge of $5 each. These are appropriate for all Temple Shalom events.

Remember the Temple in Your Will

Temple Shalom is committed to preserving the future of our congregation for generations to come. Bequests of all sizes are important resources for the Temple, and we encourage you to be a link to the future by remembering the Temple in your will. Your lasting tribute is your commitment to the survival of our religion, our Temple, and our people.

A bequest can easily be established by adding a simple codicil to your will. Additionally, many other options exist to leave a legacy for Temple Shalom.

A brochure with more information is available by contacting the administrative offices. For more information, please contact our Executive Director Steve Lewis at 972-661-1810 x202.

Your planned gift will serve the future of our congregation and community. Thank you for helping assure the strength and health of Temple Shalom for generations to come.

We Recycle!

Please remember that Temple Shalom recycles! Be sure to throw out papers and recyclable plastic in our blue bins. Food-stained paper and food waste should be deposited in our trash bins.

Thank you for being kind to our environment and for encouraging fellow congregants to do the same!
