I Was Just Thinking...

An early Shanah Tovah to you and your family. I pray this year will be a good year for you and yours and that sweetness, health and happiness shine brightly in what is sometimes an otherwise dark and scary place.

As we greet each other at Temple or in other places as the new year approaches, we offer to our friends a “Shanah Tovah! - a good year.” Interestingly enough, we say Shanah Tovah in the Hebrew but wish people a “Happy New year in English”? I often wonder why the Jewish salutation at the start of the year is “Shanah Tovah - a Good Year”. In our secular calendar we wish everyone Happy New Year. Why don’t we do the same for the Jewish year? Is there something different about wishing for good rather than wishing for happy? What is it really we are wishing for when we wish for happiness or goodness? Think of the different phrases using happy or good. Happy birthday! Why not good birthday? Have a good week! Or more politely, Good Day! Why not have a happy week? Interestingly we offer a “Good Shabbos!” (as my Bubbe used to say it!) or in Hebrew a “Shabbat Shalom”, but not a happy Shabbat. It seems to me. While we do say, “Chag Sameach!” roughly “Happy holidays” for the Jewish festivals, the word “sameach” is better translated as “joyful” which I suggest to you is not the same as happiness. So what’s going on? What is Judaism trying to teach us by using Shanah Tovah – a Good year?

I believe the answer lies in the opening chapters of Torah, in the creation story where canvas of the world is being painted upon with the divine brush. Finally, after all of creation had been finished, the Torah tells us that God rested on the seventh day and declared it holy. So in a sense, God created a space to appreciate the work of creation. Thank God for that!! But the adjective that God uses to describe creation is so important. God doesn’t describe God’s own work as “stupendous” or “fantastic” (my preferred adjective) or “wonderful” or “A+” and certainly does not use the word “happy”. No, the word God uses to describe all of creation – “good”. The highest attainable adjective bestowed by God is not happy, but good. Incredible!

I further believe that the juxtaposition of the declaring the seventh day holy and the calling of creation good is no mistake or accident. And therein lays the answer. Our call to goodness is a call to holiness. When we wish someone a “good year” what we are really doing is hoping that their year is filled with moments of holiness, moments of Godly encounters, moments of imitating God’s actions. What we wish for is that their year is filled with meaning, with experiences that help to make our world a better and brighter place.

As George Bernard Shaw wrote, “This is the true joy of life. The being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one. The being a force of nature instead of a feverish and selfish clod of ailments and grieving senses complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy. I am of the opinion that my life belongs to the whole community and that as long as I live it is my privilege to do for it whatever I can. I want to be thoroughly used up when I die. For the harder I work, the more I live. I rejoice in life for its own sake. Life is no brief candle to me. It is a sort of splendid torch which I have got to hold up for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.”

Armed with the wishes from others to make this place better, we can go out into the world to face the daunting challenges that we, our families and those we know as well as those we have yet to encounter experience every day and make the world less scary, less uncertain and definitely more holy – and thereby making the world, as God described it, “Very Good”.

Don’t get me wrong – I am all for being happy. I believe in the power of positive thinking and feeling moments of joy. But Judaism asks us to transcend our own desires for personal happiness as a first and foremost and to try to work on making the good/holy happen for others. When that happens we will have not only a good year, but I am sure a sweet one as well. Good luck! And may you and yours have a good, meaningful and holy year.

President's Column by Rodney Schlosser

Dear Fellow Congregants,

You may recall, I sent an email in early July sharing our interim staffing plans following Rabbi Boxman's decision to move to Florida to be closer to her parents following the arrival of her second child. I also announced that we were launching a Strategic Planning Task Force, chaired by long-time member Stephanie Hirsh, PhD. The Task Force is charged with developing a plan that the Board and staff can use to guide decision making and future planning. Below is an update on their progress over the last six weeks, and how every member can get involved.

Task Force Members

The following members of the congregation have been appointed, and each represents a unique constituency within our membership. Senior Rabbi Andrew Paley and Executive Director Steve Lewis are also involved as ex-officio members.

Stephanie Hirsh
Chair

Abbie Alter

Stephen Falk

Diane Laner

Beth Lasher

Irv Munn

Scope of Work

The Task Force is focused on identifying immediate and future priorities to advance the Temple mission, and serve and attract members; a needs analysis, key strategies to address priorities (particularly in areas of human resources, programming, technology, and facilities); and financial models/options for funding the plan.

Input Needed

The Task Force will be engaging with members in different ways throughout the process. A congregational survey is planned for mid-September, a workshop in October, and interviews in November. The Task Force is already gathering demographic information on our membership and the broader Dallas Jewish community, as well as exploring national trends within the Reform movement.

Timing

The Task Force's goal is to present their "Blueprint 2025" report in early 2020. The Temple Board will be getting periodic updates, and we'll also be communicating via the monthly Temple newsletter.

As you know, this type of project is tedious, complicated, and extremely important. Please respond when you are asked for input. Thank you in advance for helping make our community stronger, and a special call-out to Stephanie and the members of the Task Force who are committing significant time to this high-impact endeavor.

PS – We want to invite friends and family who don't have a place to go for Rosh Hashanah and/or Yom Kippur into our community. Don't forget to contact Executive Director Steve Lewis slewis@templeshalomdallas.org 972-661-1810 x 202 with names of people to whom we (or you) should reach out as we approach the High Holy Days.

Migrant Respite Center

located at the Oaklawn United Methodist Church, 3014 Oak Lawn Ave, Dallas 75219

Midpoint Transfer for Asylum Seekers

The Migrant Response Center is re-opening the Respite Center to support asylum seekers coming from San Antonio that can get less expensive flights by flying out of Dallas-Ft Worth.

This effort is very similar to what the Respite Center is set up to do, however, what is different is that it will be receiving migrants in smaller numbers on an "as needed" basis vs scheduled busses with set numbers of migrants.

Volunteers should be actively watching email, the center website and the center Facebook page for announcements and volunteer opportunities.

Needs will be posted on the center's VoMo site, <https://app.vomo.org/org/dallas-responds> to sign up. Please remember background checks are needed on everyone helping out at the center. We will need drivers for airport / hotel shuttles, as well as volunteers to assist at the Respite Center during the day. This work will be very dynamic and there may only be 1-2 days notice.

Items from this list are needed: <https://tinyurl.com/Migrant-Respite-Center-List>

Join Tikkun Olam in the Temple Sukkah!

Wednesday, October 16

6:30pm - 8:30pm

In October we celebrate the shelter of our people in the wilderness. These days are a remembrance of forty years of wandering in the desert, of moving toward the promised land. Please join the Tikkun Olam Council in the Sukkah as we share a bite to eat, and learn about the migration stories of today - the events and troubles we hear about and see via our news feeds. We will learn first-hand from agency staff (including Refugee Service of Texas, Catholic Charities, DAI, and others) about the system for asylum, refugee status and immigration in our country, and share our stories of migration.

We will capture within our sukkah our very own family stories of immigration and wandering, and make those part of our sukkah.

Bring a Shower Gift to the Sukkah! Program attendees are asked to bring a welcoming gift for a refugee family member: shampoo, ladies toiletries, car seats (all ages), winter coats, laundry soap and, of course, diapers are always needed by refugee families and will be donated to the Refugee Services of Texas.

We continue to build our Core Team for DAI and to continue to work with other DAI member organizations on Social Justice issues. Recently, we met to develop the issues we want to work on right now. We defined immigration, health care, affordable housing and education as issues for continued organizing activities.

DAI is continuing work on immigration issues through expansion of the nationally recognized and widely replicated Parish ID Project and on Health Care Access through a series of health fairs funded by the Christus Foundation.

Members share their stories...

"For our family, Temple Shalom has always been home. We both moved to Dallas the same year when we were kids, and became members via our parents. We both taught religious school in the Ozrim program during high school and were both confirmed here. When we got married and it came time for us to join a synagogue as adults and parents ourselves, we knew it was the right place for us and our children. The kids always look forward to going and we have all made amazing friendships."

Robyn and Mark Herbert Family
Dallas

"When Ken returned to Dallas after an absence of 14 years, he quickly re-joined Temple Shalom. On his first visit to Torah Study class he met Judy, the love of his life. They shared so much of their history through Temple Shalom. Six confirmations, four bar mitzvahs, funerals and, then, their wedding. Together they have over ninety years of living Jewishly through Temple Shalom."

They have not only participated in the many activities of the Temple, but they have been active volunteers - Brotherhood President, Co-chairs of Shalom Silver, Board Member, Temple Officer, and many more opportunities for service to our community. Temple Shalom is a warm and welcoming community that has enriched their lives. 'We look forward to many more years of service and participation in all that Temple Shalom offers.'"

USHERS & GREETERS

BROTHERHOOD

It is hoped that all have had an enjoyable Summer! As we go into high-gear, Brotherhood event-wise, we have much to look forward to with so many events coming up. Check out our weekly postings on Mondays in the TS Weekly Reminders, the Friday Service Handouts, our always striving to be inappropriate, award-winning, monthly BRO Newsletter, the Temple's monthly Newsletter

Brotherhood Page, the Temple website, and our Facebook and Twitter social media for the latest happenings.

Well, the ink hadn't even dried on the official scorecard and our undeserving Sisterhood was immediately blasting out and proclaiming their recent Family Feud victory on their and the Temple's social media. Admittedly, we'd have done the same given the opportunity.

It is certain there will be an investigation opened by my Board as to why this president's administration can't win back the Family Feud trophy. I'm ready, though, to be held accountable and answer them back in true political fashion. I will lay the blame on my predecessor, Bill Hoffpauer, who began this shanda in the last year of his presidency. It is said in the Brotherhood's ranks by previous presidents, one truly masters their chief executive role in the final year. It has only taken a year to learn how to Teflon-ize myself.

A gentle reminder: Our annual Join Brotherhood Membership Drive is going on NOW. It is gratifying to report that we are way ahead of last year's membership numbers so far!

To join our League of Extraordinary Mensches, you can conveniently click on this membership link <https://tinyurl.com/joinbrotherhood> or contact Robert Landers at rjlanders@gmail.com.

Or heed this warning, we will make certain to contact you by phone at a most inconvenient time till you relent and join. We're just wanting to help you get written for the New Year in our good book!

Chag Sameach and L'Shana Tovah!
 Brotherly Yours!
 Steve Weintraub
 President, Temple Shalom Brotherhood

SAVE THE DATE ~
 SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2020
 Brotherhood Shalom Award Will Be Presented to State Senator Royce West

Some of Senator West's key initiatives include the establishment of the University of North Texas at Dallas and a new law school in downtown Dallas.

His legislation created the Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center at Prairie View A&M University, increased funding for at-risk youth programs, awarded greater compensation to victims of violent crime, and established new standards for child care.

Sponsorship and Underwriting opportunities are available. Become our Tournament Sponsor, Team Sponsor, or our Closest-to-the pin Underwriter. There are many opportunities for you to become a part of our team. We also have a way for you to honor our Vets and First Responders through our Heroes/First Responders Sponsorship. Sponsor a VET, Firefighter, EMT, or Police Officer. This is an excellent way to say "Thank You" for a job well done.

For the Information Packet go to the Temple Shalom website.
