YIZKOR MEMORIAL SERVICE
2023 – 5784

TEMPLE SHALOM
Let us sing the soul of every name and the names of every soul.
– Marcia Falk

Yizkor. To remember. To remember is a mitzvah. It says that what has gone before us is valuable, has meaning, just as we must strive each day to give our lives meaning.

It says that I am not alone. No Jew is ever alone. We are connected to a sacred past. We carry within us the sum total of all that ever was and all that ever will be. We carry within us those we have loved and those who have loved us. Recalling our past we remember ourselves.

It says that in spite of the pain and the loss, life is worth living. I am not the beginning nor am I the end. And through the gift of memory, I keep alive all that was good and precious in those that came before me.

We Jews are a remembering people. We gather at this sacred moment in time to remember those whose lives were lived so that ours could be. As we speak their names, aloud or in our hearts, let us invite each of their souls, if only for a brief moment in time, to be with us again.

May each of their memories continue to bless our days and years. May the lives we lead, this day and every day, be a blessing to their memories. And may each of you be blessed for your act of remembering them today.

Rabbi Andrew M. Paley
We record with profound sorrow the loss of the following members of Temple Shalom who have passed away since Yom Kippur 2022-5783.

May God’s illustrious name become increasingly great and holy
In the world that He created according to His will,
and may God establish the divine kingdom
In your lifetime and in your days
and in the lifetime of all the house of Israel
Speedily and soon.
And let us say, amen.

May God’s illustrious name be blessed always and forever.
Blessed, praised, glorified, exalted, extolled
Honored, raised up and acclaimed be the name of the Holy one blessed be He beyond every blessing, hymn, praise and consolation that is uttered in the world.
And let us say, amen.

May abundant peace from heaven and life
Be upon us and upon all Israel.
And let us say, amen.

May He who makes peace in the heavens
Make peace upon us and upon all Israel.
And let us say, amen.
