	Laurel Fisher, Secretary	x	Debra Levy-Fritts, Past Pres.

D'var: Given by Gail Enda. Debra Levy-Fritts will do the next D'var.

Councils/Committees/Progress: Executive Team members gave an update on their status of filling council committee positions.

Rosh Hashanah Recap/Yom Kippur Preview: Rabbi Paley gave an update on the number of members who attended RH services in person and online. The online viewership numbers continue to grow. The Exec team discussed how much they enjoyed the services. It was suggested that portions of the services including the President's Report, Rabbi's Sermon, and the music, be uploaded to the website so viewers can get an idea of our programs. Rabbi stated Yuri has retired and we have a new cellist he will introduce during Kol Nidre service. Mayor Johnson was supposed to have spoken at the Yom Kippur symposium but has a conflict. Collin Alred will speak instead. It was suggested that Monica Sussman write an article about High Holy Day attendance for the newsletter. Rabbi will announce as well from the Bimah.

Fundraiser: Theresa Myers gave an update on the Golf Tournament, stating that the Board's fundraising is underway, and we are on track to meet our fundraising goals with the combined sponsorship/underwriting, auction items, and player solicitation. The Golf Committee is also on track to reach its goal.

- Auction Item Deadline: Friday, 9/22
- Sponsorship/Underwriting Signage Deadline: Friday, 9/29

The Legacy Update – maintaining and increasing engagement: Gail Enda reported that Steve Enda has contacted Legacy Midtown and let them know we want to engage with their residents and share programming.

Board Meeting Agendas: Dennis Eichelbaum presented a draft agenda for the October 2nd Board meeting.

- Theresa Myers will provide dinner at the October meeting.
- The November meeting will be a potluck.
- Debbie Niederman will be presenting at the December meeting.

Other Announcements:

- Board Veterans Day Calls will be coming up soon.
- Dennis will have lunch with the CDA President on Friday, 9/29, as a check-in meeting.

Closed Session.

Meeting adjourned: 6:16 p.m.
