JANUARY 31, 2024

Dear Religious School Families:

What a wonderful, wonder-filled day! Thank you to our 7th grade leaders for planning an amazing Mitzvah Day. It was truly a day of Everyday People Making Every Day Better!!

This week's Hebrew words of the week are: Mitzvah - which means, commandment. There are some commandments that are things we DON'T do, so a mitzvah is not only a good deed. There are a whole group of mitzvot that are acts of loving kindness (things we do to make the world better for other individuals) these g'milut chasadim are good deeds!

We look forward to sharing our hard work with the Vogel Alcove, Friends of the IDF, Richardson Animal Shelter and our own Temple Shalom Justice Garden. Thank you to all the parents who raised our amazing 7th graders and to all the families who brought in materials for our mitzvah/g'milut chasadim activities today!
